Kaclik Builders, LLC

Christopher J. Kaclik, founder, owner and builder for Kaclik Builders, LLC, has been creating an impressive portfolio of premier custom homes since 1985. A Pittsburgh native, Chris, along with the experienced staff of Kaclik Builders, is one of the most successful custom home builders in Pittsburgh, ranking an impressive 12th in 2005 among the Pittsburgh home builders.

Chris established Kaclik Builders' reputation through his broad knowledge of the process, his hands-on approach, and his dedication to his customers. Whether a seasoned new home buyer, or a novice, Kaclik Builders' team is committed to providing an experience that is both satisfying and pleasant.

Evidence of Kaclik Builders' consistently elegant workmanship can be found throughout the area, in homes ranging in price from $220,000 to $3,000,000. Two of Chris' many premier developments are Arabian Fields, and now Thieleman Crossings, where he exclusively built some of the most prestigious homes north of Pittsburgh.

Kaclik Builders has earned its position in this industry by providing clients with the excellence, service and attention they desire. Clients learn that what he says, he does; and what he does, is done right, with results you will be happy to live with.
