CUSTOM WORKS, LLC

True to the name, Ken Wroblewski has emerged in his field as a premier custom home builder. He has stepped up above the rest in building truly custom designed homes for his clients; taking into account the individual needs and dreams of each family he builds for.

Custom Works is based in the Mars Area. Ken was born in Western Pennsylvania and has lived here his entire life. He prides himself in knowing the area, and believing in its growth. Custom Works homes have been built in Squire Ridge, Preserve East, Carriage Manor as well as FieldLake Estates.

Ken has been involved in new home construction since 1998. He believes that a quality product with quality craftsmanship does not have to interfere with building a home at a reasonable price.

Ken is personally involved in every aspect of creating and building a home, and he includes his clients in every step of the way to make their experience truly custom. When you choose Custom Works, LLC, you are choosing to make your dreams a reality, and your home truly your own.
